

Partnerships for Health Promotion

Guest speakers will share their experiences of working in partnership on health promotion projects:

Colleen Carlon

Investing in our Youth

West Australian Prevention Partnership (Greater Bunbury area)
Creating opportunities for young people through communities that care

Yvette Miller

Caboolture Mums and Little Ones Project

A multi-strategy community-based health promotion project to improve physical activity and nutrition among women during and after pregnancy

Laurie Perkins

Correctional Facilities Education Project

A project to raise awareness of blood borne viruses within the Correctional Environment, working in strategic partnership with state-wide organisations

Louise Baldwin

Forming, managing & sustaining alliances for health promotion

Development of guidelines for the formation, management and sustainability of alliances for cardiovascular health

Thursday
15 November
5:30pm for 6pm start

David Lambert Auditorium,
The Cancer Council Queensland
553 Gregory Terrace,
Fortitude Valley
(car parking available underneath the building)

$15 for AHPA members

$25 for non-members

Light refreshments provided

RSVPs essential for catering purposes
RSVP by 6 November 2007
to Rachel Hull at rachelhull@cancerqld.org.au or (07) 5591 1500