

HEALTH PROMOTION LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE PILOT PROGRAM 2023

Application

Overview

Health promotion problems pose unique challenges due to their scale and complexity. Leadership and governance are necessary to drive the health promotion agenda, provide strategic vision and a voice for the health promotion approach in positively influencing the public's health. The Australian Health Promotion Association (AHPA) is pleased to invite eligible and interested members to participate in the Health Promotion Leadership and Governance Pilot Program (the Program) to develop these critical health promotion competencies, ensuring our action is effective, ethical, equitable and empowering. We seek members interested in participating in structured experiences designed to accelerate active leadership and governance participation in AHPA, in their employment and in their community. It is our aspiration that by supporting members to participate we can contribute to stronger health promotion action and to our vision of a healthy, equitable Australia.

Eligibility

All applicants must be:

- a full, financial, individual (non-student) member for a minimum of 2 years prior to closing date.
- an early-mid-career professional, generally with six to ten years' experience working in health promotion.
- available to participate in the professional development activity in full.
- willing to participate in social media activity and/or assist with any AHPA activities or promotion leading up to, during or after participation (as appropriate)
- committed to participating in an AHPA Board, Branch or Committee position post Program completion.

Assessment of applications

- A panel will assess all applications received by the closing date according to the purpose and criteria outlined above.
- Applications received after the closing date will not be considered.
- The panel may deem all, some or none of the applications are suitable. Shortlisted applicants may be contacted to provide further information.
- The panel's decision is final. AHPA commits to notifying all applicants of the outcome of their application by end of July 2023.

AHPA investment in the Program is significant. Your capacity to benefit depends on your commitment to participate in the entire Program including attending all sessions and engaging in required activities. Your commitment, with the support of your employer, where relevant, is critical to Program acceptance.

How to apply

Please submit the completed Health Promotion Leadership & Governance Pilot Program Application Form along with a brief resume to the AHPA Secretariat via email: members@healthpromotion.org.au by Friday 7th July.
