

THE AHPA 30 UNDER 30 AWARDS

As part of AHPA's 30th anniversary celebrations, we are looking for Australia's top 30 health promotion professionals under the age of 30 who have made a significant contribution to our sector. This national award will recognise the depth of talent and outstanding achievements of Australia's early career health promotion practitioners and volunteers under 30 years of age who are starting their career.

WHO CAN BE NOMINATED?

Nominees must be:

- A current AHPA individual member;
- Under the age of 30 years (as at 31 December 2020);
- Currently employed or volunteering within the health promotion sector; and
- Be based in Australia.

HOW DO I SUBMIT A NOMINATION?

Simply complete this registration form and return by Sunday 22 November 2020. Please provide as much information as possible within the word limits to assist the Board in their decision. You are welcome to supply any additional information such as photographs, media articles of other relevant material to support the nomination.

Email completed nominations to members@healthpromotion.org.au

HOW WILL NOMINATIONS BE ASSESSED?

Nominations will be presented to the AHPA National Board to assess and may contact the nominator if they require any additional information to assist with selecting awardees.

Winners and their contribution will be recognised by the AHPA Board at an online awards presentation event in early December (date TBC) and through digital and social media platforms. They will also receive a certificate of recognition and letter from the AHPA President that can be added to their professional resume.
